1. What did you like most about the course and/or instructor?

One of the best courses b/c it allowed me to learn something I thought I knew about, but was totally different than what I expected.

The projects were fair as well as the grades for the class assignments

2. What did you like least about the course and/or instructor?

3. What could the instructor do to improve the course or his or her teaching effectiveness?

1. What did you like most about the course and/or instructor?

Enthusiasm & inclusion of academic papers as a supplement to text

2. What did you like least about the course and/or instructor?

Group work

3. What could the instructor do to improve the course or his or her teaching effectiveness?

Maybe one of the simulations could be individualized.

A little more consistent mix of textbook learning & research/theory.

(Perhaps more text/basics at the beginning of the course)

4. Other comments:

1. What did you like most about the course and/or instructor?

- He cared more about making students understand him more than other teachers I've had
- always willing to met even very early or very late and certainly past office hour times

2. What did you like least about the course and/or instructor?

3. What could the instructor do to improve the course or his or her teaching effectiveness?

4. Other comments:

Give him a raise
